Social skills

Good attitude in group activities (team project during the University classes and during the work) and capability of working with people (waitress and secretary in a public office).

Children experience as baby-sitting and monitrice.

I stayed in foreign countries (Poland and Spain) living with people coming from all over the world and I really enjoyed to live with people coming from different cultures.

Organizational skills

Team working improved my rigor, my method and schedule. Working alone allowed me to improve my organizational skills, because I had to handle time limits and different tasks without any external help.
